

London's unique waterside wedding venue: Wyndham Grand Ballroom

The Grand Ballroom at Wyndham Grand, London Chelsea Harbour, the capital's only five-star, all-suite hotel, has just been opened, and the hotel now offers a number of spectacular spaces for weddings and events.

The glass-fronted Grand Ballroom, which launched in February 2010, can accommodate up to 600 guests, and offers natural light and stunning views across the harbour. This is a truly unique venue in London and ideally suited to large scale events; it can also be divided into smaller spaces if necessary.

The hotel is central and well connected, with Imperial Wharf train station, Fulham Broadway and Earl's Court tube stations all minutes' walk away; parking for large numbers of guests is also available. The Wyndham Grand can even arrange for a boat to transport guests to the hotel in style from a number of collection points along the Thames, or to host an intimate reception on the water.

The Wyndham Grand offers a free wedding coordinator to offer support with the planning and organisation of the wedding, and all wedding parties receive a complimentary suite for the night. The new penthouse suites - complete with panoramic views - are available for hire for weddings and parties, and provide a bespoke and luxurious environment for guests following the celebrations. The four suites all follow distinct, yet subtle fashion themes. The sophisticated Kensington Suite incorporates Kvadrat's

Paul Smith designed fabrics on the soft furnishings, while the King's Suite features a full-height Union Jack headboard; and the Savile Suite is inspired by paisley design, while Art Deco underpins the Abingdon Suite.

Wyndham Grand London's General Manager, Michael Schaefer said: "The Wyndham Grand offers an exceptional level of service and style, and we are thrilled to now be able to offer the spectacular Grand Ballroom for events. The scale and elegance of the space is ideally suited for weddings and we look forward to welcoming happy couples to the hotel in the months to come."
